PROFESSIONAL Women IN BUILDING

WHY PROFESSIONAL WOMEN IN BUILDING

The NAHB Professional Women in Building Council brings the power of professional women together to create opportunities for growth and success in the building industry. Through professional development, networking, mentorship, and leadership opportunities, PWB helps women build strong careers and expand their influence year after year. From business owners and industry professionals to students entering the field, PWB provides the resources, connections, and support women need to thrive.

OUR MISSION & IMPACT

Professional Women in Building (PWB) is a NIBCA council dedicated to being the voice of women in the building industry. As a non-profit association, PWB supports NIBCA's mission while making a positive impact through education, community involvement, and advocacy.

Through professional development and networking, PWB helps members build leadership and business skills that support career growth in a constantly evolving industry. Joining PWB means investing in yourself, supporting the industry, and giving back to the community along the way.

EDUCATION

PWB offers monthly member events, engaging networking and social experiences, and continuous educational opportunities.

SUPPORT OF NIBCA

PWB proudly supports NIBCA through hands-on involvement in key events and initiatives.

- Home & Garden Show: PWB supports the event by managing ticket sales and assisting with judging and raffles.
- Parade of Homes: PWB coordinates all details for the Awards Banquet.
- Gone Wild Event: PWB contributes a highly sought-after gift basket in support of this signature fundraiser.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

PWB is committed to giving back through meaningful community service and outreach.

- Habitat for Humanity Women's Build: PWB works side by side with other women to help build homes and support local families.
- The Warming Tree: PWB provides warm clothing and essential items for the St. Vincent de Paul Warming Center.
